John Lyons, James Brady, and Arthur Birdsall tried to break out of the jail in White Plains on Thursday night. They had tried to make, a cat's-paw of a negro prisoner, He was to drug the turnkey and get the keys of the cells. The negro notified Sheriff Duffy of the plot several days ago, and told him that Lyons was in possession of some steel saws, with which he intended to saw the bars in a certain window of the prison. The Sheriff and jailer, Frank G. Schireger, made a search of the cells occupied by Lyons, Birdsall, and Brady with-cut either of those prisoners being aware of what was being done, but they falled to find the saws. The Sheriff then instructed the negro to pretend to carry out his part in the negro to pretend to carry out his part in the piot so far as to get possession of the keys. Eleven gelock Thursday night was the time fixed by Lyons for the escape. At that hour, when swarything was as quiet as a gravynrd, the jaller, in his stocking feet, started to enter the lower corridor of the prison.

Meantime Lyons and his companions had been assured by the negro that everything was all right. The clicking of the jaller's key in the lock of the large iron door leading to the prison startled Lyons, who said to the negro: What is that T The negro replied that he was merely trying the key in the lock to see if it worked all right. The jailer hid under a stairway and signalled to the negro to go shead and unjock the cells of Lyons, Brady, and Sirdsail, all on the upper tier. When the doors were unlocked Lyons stepped out of his cell and began to descend the stairs. On the stairs he was brought to a halt by the jailer, who thrust a revolver under his nose and said:

Lyons, I'm on to you. Throw up your hands."

To this Lyons yeplied;

"Lyons, I'm on to you. Throw up your hands."

To this Lyons replied:
"Damn that pigger; he has betrayed me."

Brady and Birdsall, who were following Lyons, returned to their cells on seeing the trap Lyons had failen into. Lyons had a fine steel saw about a foot long in his possession. The jaffer told him that he had better surrender all the tools he had, and on being led back to his cell he turned over three other saws which he had concealed under a mattress. Byrnes, who had been sentenced to three years in the State prison for horse stealing, had told theriff Duffy that he expected some money from Massachusetts, and had requested him not to take him to Sing Sing until he settled up his business. This request had been granted, but the Sheriff hurried him off to Sing Sing early yesterday morning. Lyons had tried his saws on the iron bar of a window in the southwest corner of the jail, the bar being sawed almost completely through. He did this work on Wednesday last. Brady is accused of stealing a horse and Birdsall of killing a man on the new aqueduct.

Ignorance may be bliss, but a lack of knowledge as to the proper uses of PEARLINE is a marked exception to the rule.

Because its use means the modern way to wash clothes and clean house; it lightens labor; it saves time; it does away with the rubbing, and thus saves the worst of the wear on clothes or paint; it produces unequalled results, and withal is perfectly harmless.

There are two ways to prove this-best way, try it other way, ask some friend who uses it. You'll be surprised to learn how many do. Sold Everywhere.

If I had known of the CUTICURA REMEDIES twenty, eight years ago is would have saved me $4.00.00 (two hundred dollars) and an immeuse amount of suffering. My disease (Poorlasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop on of me all the time, and my suffering was endies and without relief. One thousand dollars would not temp me to have the disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors and was leproay, some ringworm, psorlasia &c. I from " " And " " I Sarsaparillas over one year and a half, but no cure. I went to two or three doctors, and no cure. I cannot praise the CUTICURA REMEDIES too much. They have made my skin as clear and free from sesses as a beby". All I used of them was three house of CUTICURA and three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and two cakes of CUTICURA BOAP. If you had been here and said you would have sured me for $200.00 you would have had the monar. I looked like the picture in your book of Psorlasis (picture number two, "How to Cure Skin Diseases"), but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit you my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight vears, and is yot to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times. Anything more that you want to know write me, or any one who reads this may write to me and I will answer it.
